THE CONVICTION OF EVANS.

The trial and conviction of John Evans (colored) at Rockingham, N. C. recently seems to have been a gross miscarriage of justice.

He was charged with attempting to eriminally assault a white woman, Miss Lillie Cole. That the wrong man has been apprehended and condemned to suffer the death penalty seems to be a foregone conclusion, and some of the leading Democratic journals take this view of the case.

Unless some steps are at once taken Evans will be hanged November 26,
